

Awake, Sleeper!

Michael Morales | Elisa Morales | Brandon McDaniel | Charis McDaniel

You give me your ear, Lord
You listen when I cry and sing
You hear me in the morning
As I see the sun rising

You remind me of your goodness
You remind me of your love
You remind me as the dawn breaks
And I will look up

CHORUS

Awake, sleeper!
Breathe again
There's jubilee on the horizon
Jubilee on the horizon

You find me where I am
You hold me in the warmth of Your wing
Your eyes never close, Lord
Your back will never turn to me

You take all my wanting
Your love gives me all I need
You bring me to Your table
I feast before my enemies

Bridge

Now the tomb is empty
We have that victory
The tomb is empty
Now that power resides in me
