

Eternal One

Charis McDaniel | Brandon McDaniel |

I ask how long will I question
Even when You say it's done
In the moments I can't hear Your voice
The rocks cry out as one

Even when the trees don't blossom
Even if no harvest comes
Even though my fields are empty
I'll rejoice in You alone

Pre-Chorus

You say listen I've declared it
It's a new thing I have done
I will finish what I started
Though it lingers it will come

CHORUS

Still I will thank You Lord
Still I will sing Your praise alone
Your glory has come, be lifted high
Eternal One

You come like the brilliant sunrise
You've been there all my days
When the deep cries out, submitting
You alone deserve my praise

I have heard about Your power
Now I see you come in Truth
I'm in awe within Your presence
All the nations feel Your move

Bridge

I will climb to the watchtower
I will follow Your voice
I will wait on You patiently
I will rest on Your Word