

You Remain

Michael Morales | Brandon McDaniel | Elisa Morales

You remain - You are reliable
You are resident in me
Never reticent to speak

You restore - You make all things new
You bring life where there is death
Shining light into the depths

CHORUS

For all that you've done
For all that you are
I will praise you

For all that you've given
Has satisfied me
I will praise you

You give rest
To the weary soul
Pouring blessings out like rain
Washing every stain away

You revive
You have conquered death
You have poured life into us
We're whole and holy in your love

Bridge

There's not a question Your love can't answer
There has never been a need too great
You are the anchor in the midst of my wandering
In Your mystery I am safe
