

Boundless

Brandon McDaniel

Apart from You, Oh Lord I have no good thing

When the rocks cry out in worship, I am longing to sing

Your faithfulness is proven, I'm a picture of grace

In Your promises I rest; You stay the same

God Most High, my shield, You are mighty to save

I'm surrounded by Your favor, Your mercy remains

Every prayer I raise is thanks for the work
You have done

Every breath I take is victory, for the battle is won

Bridge

So I call on You, my God

For You hide me, You are for me

There's no end to Your great love Your faithful promise is all that I see

Chorus

You show me the wonders of a love unexplained
You call me your child, now I wear a new name
By Your grace I'm made whole
By Your right hand I'm saved
Your love is boundless to me

You heard my cry, O God when I suffered with shame

When my soul was dry and thirsty, You commanded the rain

I'm the apple of Your eye, in the warmth of Your wing

I am satisfied with You; You are all that I need

Bridge 2

So I rest in You, my God
For You shield me, You surround me
All of You and nothing more Just Your Boundless, Endless favor covering me
